Yes, I suppose I could have left Six Years on the shelf at the library. But it was the only one of his there that I hadn't read and I admit it " my desire for escapist Coben pulled harder than my hatred of the soul mate. Take that as a high compliment, Harlan.

Six Years by Harlan Coben Review | Readers Lane

review 2: Like Lee Child and Nelson DeMille, Harlan Coben is always a pleasure to welcome back. I enjoyed this latest yarn, a convoluted tale involving lost love that holds you right up until the final page. I don't know if Coben really does make complete sense of the plot machinations at the end, but I had a good time getting there anyway.
